

RECEIVING CREW

Except for Barry Gibbons, who had to leave earlier, here is the receiving crew. From left to right, Timothy Hampton, Alan Bujanda, yours truly and Lou Tellez. Not seen here were Ygebor (my wife) and Dora (Tim's wife) who not only kept us well fed, but also suffered the handling of the crate together with us

At this point, I would like to close by quoting my six-year old son's expression after we had taken apart the crate and were ready to close for the night, "Let's build this baby now."
